ITALY

Failure to do so will lead to exclusion from the competition. Organizers reserve the right to request replacement copies of works considered inadequate for public screening.

ARTICLE 4 SELECTION

Authors whose works are selected by the Pisa Robot Film Festival will be informed by email by April 24th, 2023.

Works will be included in the following categories: FICTION, ANIMATION,

DOCUMENTARY, and JUNIOR SCHOOL. This subdivision will be performed if there is a minimum of 5 (five) submissions per category. If not, the organisers may remove one or more categories.

All selected films will be screened during the Pisa Robot Film Festival (time and venue to be confirmed).

ARTICLE 5 ELIGIBILITY

Works must meet the following conditions, subject to exclusion from the competition:

- Relevant subject, maximum duration and presentation of all material within the terms set.
- The video must not contain obscene, offensive, inappropriate material and shall not violate the privacy, copyright, trademarks and / or intellectual property rights of any person or organization. Participants must not use materials or elements in the video that are subject to third party rights (such as excerpts from other movies, images, audio, music, etc.) unless permission has been obtained prior to the video submission. If the video contains images of minors, the participant must get permission from the parents or legal guardians.
- The organizers reserve the right at any time during the competition to remove or disable any video that does not meet the requirements and / or conditions of participation.
- By participating in the competition, participants accept all terms and conditions of this notice and exempt the organizers of the Pisa Robot Film Festival from any civil and capital liability for damages to persons or things arising from participation in the competition as well as for costs and / or expenses for production, use, the loss of the video.
- Works presented or recognized in other competitions may be included.

ARTICLE 6 JURY

The organizers of the Pisa Robot Film Festival will nominate the Jury. The Jury evaluates all films participating in the contest, regardless of membership category. The decisions made by the juries are final.

Every attempt will be made to appoint jury members from a wide range of backgrounds and disciplines. The people who have collaborated in the creation of competing works or are interested in their use cannot be appointed as members of the Jury.

The names of the jury members will be made publicly available on the PRFF web-site (www.pisarobotfilmfestival/jury).
